AMSIB Alumni newsletter

Dear graduate,

Needing a healthy dose of Vitamin A- all things AMSIB alumni related? Look no further! We will serve up our events, big milestones and successes in order for you to have better vision of what happened this past year at AMSIB.

NETWORKING EVENING

Interested in catching up with other AMSIB graduates? On February 1, 2019, you are invited to attend a networking evening from 19:00-21:00 in Amsterdam. Take a walk down memory lane and catch up with old friends over drinks and nice conversation! Judith Smiths, a networking expert and author of De FUNfactor will be our guest speaker for the evening and will have a fun session in English about the art of networking. Event invitations will be sent out in January, so make sure your preferences have been updated in the Alumni Community in order to receive it!

EVENTS CALENDAR

Curious to know what events we have lined up for you this year? We have seminars, networking events along with a Masterclass! Save the date, April 13, for the Alumni Day, where all Amsterdam University of Applied Science faculties will be present, offering a range of seminars and workshops. Check out our alumni calendar of events for more details

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE 2018 ALUMNI!

AMSIB is proud to welcome over 250 new graduates to the Alumni Community! Ceremonies were held in March and in September at our Fraijlemaborg location. Check out the benefits of being an AMSIB graduate!

NORTHUMBRIA MASTERS

Are you thinking about furthering your education? AMSIB has partnered with Northumbria University in Newcastle, United Kingdom for two Masters programmes- Project Management and Business Management. All lessons will be held in Amsterdam, whereas your degree will be from Northumbria University.

NEW IB PROGRAMME

This academic year marked the start of our new International Business (IB) programme, which is a merger of the former International Business and Management (IBMS) and International Business and Languages (IBL) programmes. Over 720 students were welcomed with an active introduction week held at the Fort Island near Amsterdam. Become part of our community to stay updated on relevant AMSIB news!
