

Ghana Eastern Railway Line - a Financing Puzzle

Lars Dyrskjøt Wellejus¹

ABSTRACT

Revitalizing the railway track between Ghana's two biggest cities, Accra and Kumasi to facilitate the transport of goods, both export and import, mitigate congestion in the two cities as well as on the road between them. Further aims are the development of the townships along the track as well as shifting traffic from road to rail, thereby reducing greenhouse gases.

WORKSHOP

Workshop III: Urban Sustainable Development

¹ Frankfurt University of Applied Sciences, wellejus@fb3.fra-uas.de